St. James's, November 14.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Sheriff, Aldermen, Common Council-men, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, has been presented to His Majesty by William Edwardes, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, and Sir Richard Philipps, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Plympton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriff, Aldermen, Common Council-men, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, equally uninfluenced by Motives of Servility or of Faction, but actuated by a most loyal and affectionate Regard as well for your Majesty's Sacred Person as that mild Government from which we derive so many and so great Advantages, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on the present unhappy Situation of Affairs between Great Britain and her Colonies in America.

At the Time, Sire, that we look up with Gratitude to your Majesty, for the Enjoyment of such Blessings, permit us to express our Abhorrence of those traitorous Measures which have been adopted in a distant Part of your Dominions, to dispossess us of them, by stirring up a most unnatural Rebellion, upon Pretences as vain and absurd in Speculation, as the Conduct to which they lead is nefarious and destructive in Practice.

Anxious as we naturally are to prevent the Effusion of the Blood of our Fellow-Subjects, yet despairing of the Efficacy of other than compulsive Means to bring back this deluded People to a Sense of their Duty, we wish not that the Sword of Justice be sheathed, till the Constitutional Sovereignty of this great Empire, over all its inferior Dependencies, be permanently and effectually secured.

Let those wicked Persons, who either from hence secretly abet, or in America openly support, this destructive Contest, be taught some Truths, of which it is material that they and their misguided Followers should no longer be ignorant.

Let them learn, Sire, from the Voice of a free and an intelligent People, that real Liberty is no less far removed from the Barbarism and Anarchy of Licentiousness, than is Loyalty to our Sovereign, and that excellent Constitution of which he is the Guardian and Protector, from the mean and servile Compliances of Baseness and Adulation.

Let them learn, whilst they talk of their own boasted Rights and Immunities, to respect those of their Sovereign, and of that Country from whence they derive their Existence; and which, from the Infancy of their Colonies to their present vaunted State of Maturity and Greatness, has fostered, encouraged, and protected them, with a Tenderness truly affectionate and parental.

But if, deaf to Maxims perhaps ill-suited to the Temper with which they have already treated this important Subject, they still continue to pursue Measures apparently tending to the temporary Distress of one Country, and the utter and inevitable Destruction of the other; let them learn, through such Channels as these, (the most proper, in our humble Opinions, for conveying the real Sense of the rational Majority of the Inhabitants of Great Britain) that their Partizans in this Island are neither so numerous or so powerful as that misguided People, by the Arts of seditious and designing Men, has been induced to believe; and that every sensible and unprejudiced Man considers the present Contest not (as is vainly pretended) as a Struggle for Power between your Majesty's Ministers and the Colonies, but as it really is, a Contention between those Colonies for an unjust and unconstitutional Independence on the Parent State, and that State asserting its inherent and indisputable Rights of Sovereignty over its inferior Members.

Let them learn that, as their Sophistry cannot deceive, so their Menaces cannot terrify, your Majesty or your Ministers, into Compliances injurious to the general Interests of the Empire; or let them feel, that the uplifted Arm of Britain is no less powerful to suppress and chastise the Insolence of Rebels, than they, in their happier Days of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Government, have experienced it effectual for their Protection against Foreign Enemies.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our warmest Support, in all those Measures you shall think it proper to adopt, for the general Honour and Safety of your Dominions both at Home and Abroad.

May they prove as successful as we trust they will be found both wise in Plan and vigorous in Execution; and may it be your Majesty's peculiar Felicity, after settling the present unhappy Differences upon the most equitable and permanent Foundations, neither relaxing from the Constitutional Rights of Britain on the one Hand, of infringing those of America on the other, to reign with Dignity, Ease, and Happiness, over a free, a loyal, and united People, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects,

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Lanerk, has been presented to His Majesty by Andrew Stuart, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Lanerk.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and deeply impressed with a Sense of our Happiness under your mild and auspicious Reign; permit us the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Lanerk, to approach your Majesty's Throne, sincerely regretting, that any of your Subjects should prove undeserving of the Constitutional Blessings which all of them enjoy.

We have at no Time beheld with Indifference, the seditious Conduct of your deluded American Subjects; but now, since they have had the Audacity to break out into open and unprovoked Rebellion against the Supreme Legislative Authority of our Country, we are struck with the highest Indignation, and think it our indispensable Duty to express these our Sentiments to your Majesty.

What Means, under Providence, may prove most conducive to enforce your Majesty's legal Authority, to reduce your disaffected Colonies to Allegiance, and recall them to their Duty, we do not presume to suggest; but beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that whatever Measures your Majesty and your Parliament, in your united Wisdom, may be pleased to adopt for these Salutary Purposes, we shall zealously promote; firmly determined to maintain, and to transmit inviolate to Posterity the Authority of the Crown, the Supremacy of the Laws, and the Unity of the Empire of Great Britain.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by James Lobbhart, of Lee, Preses.

Hamilton, October 27, 1775.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Aberbrothock, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Aberbrothock, in Common Council assembled, should think ourselves wanting, both in Duty and Gratitude to the best of Sovereigns, did we omit, on the present critical Occasion, to join with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in giving public Testimony of our Detestation and Abhorrence of the present unnatural Rebellion in some of your Majesty's Colonies in North America, as well as of those wicked Artifices, used by designing Men, to instigate and support it.

While we lament the fatal Consequences of the Insurrection of your Majesty's deluded Subjects in America, and wish for nothing more ardently, than an honourable, speedy, and lasting Reconciliation betwixt Great Britain and her Colonies, we cannot forbear to express our Approbation of the Measures hitherto pursued by your Majesty, in order to bring back the Americans to their Duty and Allegiance, and to an Acknowledgment of the Supremacy of our King and Parliament over every Part of the British Dominions; and as we rest with the most entire Confidence on your Majesty's Wisdom, that such Measures will, in Future, be followed, as shall be most proper for speedily effecting so desirable a Purpose, we most heartily assure your Majesty of our best Endeavours to support the Honour and Independence of your Crown, and the Legal and Constitutional Authority of Parliament, against every Disturbance and Opposition whatever.

We pray that God may bless your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom, restore Peace to every Part of the British Empire, and that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and happy People.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, and the Common Seal of the Burgh is herewith affixed by

Aberbrothock,

David Grieg, Provost.

The following Address of the Steward, Bayliff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirencester, has been presented to His Majesty by James Whitshed and Samuel Blackwell, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Steward, Bayliff, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Cirencester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, thinking it a Duty necessarily incumbent on us, at this Time, to address your Majesty on the unhappy Differences which are at present subsisting between Great Britain and her American Colonies.

Most perfectly sensible of the Mildness of your Majesty's Reign, and of the many Royal Virtues you possess, it is with the utmost Astonishment we behold any Part of your Majesty's Dominions endeavouring to throw off their Allegiance from the best of Sovereigns, by doubting your Majesty's Right (with the Consent of your Parliament) to make Laws to bind the Colonies and your Subjects in America in all Cases whatsoever, in disputing the Authority of every Branch of the Legislature, and openly daring to erect the Standard of Rebellion.

However deeply we may lament the dreadful Calamities that must be attendant on the Measures, necessarily pursued to suppress so ill-founded and so unnatural a Rebellion; yet it is a Duty we owe to ourselves and to Posterity, to endeavour to support the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and the Authority and Supremacy of the Parliament of Great Britain, over the Subjects of Great Britain, residing in every Part of the British Dominions: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, confiding in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we will, at all Times, with our Lives and Fortunes, be firm and steady in our Support of such Measures as may be deemed most expedient permanently to establish good Order and Government, and to maintain the Rights of the Legislative Authority of Great Britain, throughout your Majesty's extensive Dominions.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Suttie, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, convened at their Quarter-Sessions the Thirty-first Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, being under the deepest Concern at that Rebellion which has lately broke out in some of your Majesty's Colonies in America; humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on this most critical Occasion, and to testify our Disapprobation of these unjustifiable Proceedings, with the most solemn Assurances that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support your Majesty in suppressing the said Rebellion, and in maintaining the Authority and Dignity of the King and Parliament of Great Britain.

With much Regret we see Colonies, which owe their Existence, their boasted Opulence, and every Blessing they enjoyed in their late prosperous State, to the unwearied and tender Care of their Parent Country, regardless of the Hand that has reared and supported them, at the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure, and ungratefully attempting to throw off their Dependence on their Mother Country.

From the Experience we have had of the Clemency of your Majesty's Government, and the Temper and Moderation of both Houses of Parliament, we are fully satisfied that no Endeavours will be wanting, to induce our deluded Fellow-Subjects to return to that Allegiance which they owe to your Majesty, and to that Obedience which they owe to the Constitution, which our Ancestors judged no Expence too great to establish, and which has flourished, pure and uninterrupted, under the mild Government of the House of Hanover.

May that Being who governs the Universe, direct your Majesty's Measures and Councils, so that from the present Confusion, Order may arise, and Peace be again restored; and that your Majesty may long reign over an happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed by our Præses, and by our Authority,
George Brown, Præses.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Burrow of Haddington, East Lothian, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Suttie, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Haddington, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Burrow of Haddington, East Lothian, in Common-Council assembled, filled with the deepest Concern at the unjustifiable and rebellious Proceedings of some of your Majesty's Colonies in America, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to testify our entire Disapprobation and Abhorrence of them, with the most solemn Assurances that we will support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in maintaining the Authority of the Legislature, which we conceive does and ought to extend over every Part of the British Dominions.

With Regret and Indignation we see Colonies, which owe their Existence, and every Blessing that attended their late prosperous Situation, to this their Parent Country, unnaturally regardless of the fostering Hand that raised and supported them, and affecting Distinctions in their Dependence, not founded in Law, or in the Constitution of Great Britain.

We are convinced, by the experienced Clemency of your Majesty's Government, that no Endeavours will be wanting to induce our deluded Fellow-Subjects to return to their Obedience to that Constitution, which our Ancestors bled to establish, and which has flourished pure and uninterrupted under the mild Government of the House of Hanover.

May that Being who governs the Universe, so direct your Majesty's Councils and Measures, that, from the present Confusion, Order may arise, and Peace again be restored.

That your Majesty may long reign over an happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burrow of Haddington, in Common Council assembled.

In Name and by Appointment of the Council,
James Dudgeon, Provost.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Burntisland, in Common Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Burntisland, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Borough of Burntisland, humbly presume to approach your Majesty, acknowledging with Gratitude the many Blessings we have enjoyed since your auspicious Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Convinced by our own Happiness under your Majesty's Government, that your paternal Care and Protection has been also extended to the whole of your Dominions, we view with Astonishment the Conduct of your Subjects in America, now in Arms to oppose your Majesty's Authority, and the Legislative Power of the British Parliament. We trust that, by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, some speedy and effectual Means will be devised for reducing your insubordinate Subjects to due Obedience; and we hope that they themselves will soon perceive, how much they have been deluded by the artful Misrepresentations of factious and designing Men.

Confident that such will be the Effects of your Majesty's Deliberations, allow us, most gracious Sovereign, to encrease the Number of loyal Subjects who have at this Time of Tumult expressed their warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, assuring your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, join in supporting your lawful Authority against all Attempts, either foreign or domestic, to invade your Majesty's Rights, or those of the British Legislature.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, over a free, united, and grateful People, is the constant Wish and Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Borough of Burntisland.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, the Common Seal of the Borough being hereto affixed.
James Townsend Oswald, Provost.

Burntisland, November 1, 1775.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, has been presented to His Majesty by Mr. Adams, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, in order to express our grateful Sense of the Happiness which we enjoy under the Government of a Prince, whose Administration hath been uniformly distinguished by a Sacred Regard to the Constitution, and to the Welfare of His People.

Conscious of the many Blessings which every Part of the British Empire derives from your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; it is with deep Concern, that we have observed the Attempts of domestic Faction, to disturb the Tranquillity of your Reign; and with Astonishment, that we now behold the Rebellious Spirit, which hath excited the deluded People of America to take Arms in Opposition to your Majesty's just Authority, and the Supreme Jurisdiction of Parliament.

At such a Juncture we should deem ourselves inexcusable, if we did not join our Voice to that of our loyal Fellow Subjects, in declaring our Detestation of those seditious Principles, which have alienated the Colonies from their Duty; and in professing our fixed Purpose of supporting your Majesty's Government, and Supremacy of Parliament, to the utmost of our Power.

May your Majesty's Reign, over a happy and grateful People, be long and glorious.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Kinross, the 3d Day of November, 1775.

Mich. Malcolm, Preses.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Common-Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Throne, our Hearts glowing with Zeal for your Majesty's Person, and the Honour of Great Britain.

We see, with the utmost Concern, the Conduct of your Majesty's Subjects in America, who, encouraged by daring and factious Men at Home, have proceeded to Attempts of the most criminal Nature, and, with Ingratitude equal to their Folly, rebelled against your Majesty's Government, and that State, to whose Protection they owe the Prosperity they enjoy.

We trust, that your Majesty in your Wisdom will take the most effectual Measures for bringing these infatuated People to a true Sense of their Duty; and we humbly presume to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully join your other faithful Subjects in supporting your Majesty's Authority, and the Supremacy of the British Legislature.

That your Majesty may long enjoy an uninterrupted State of Felicity, and reign over a free and happy People, is the united and ardent Wish of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, The Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Burgh of Kirkaldy.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, the Seal of the Burgh being affixed.

*Kirkaldy,
November 1, 1777.*

Thomas Mackie, Provost.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Colonel James Murray, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express to your Majesty the deep and unfeigned Sorrow with which we have beheld Sedition in America artfully fomented by designing and wicked Men there, until it has burst forth into open Rebellion.

Having Reason to apprehend that our deluded Fellow-Subjects in America have been misled into a Belief, that their Resistance to the Supreme Authority of the Parliament, and their Disobedience to the Laws, are agreeable to the Sentiments of many of your Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain; we think it our indispensable Duty to make this publick Declaration, That we detest and abhor such Practices and such Principles, so repugnant to the Spirit of our excellent Constitution; and destructive of true Liberty, which can only subsist in Conformity to, and under the Protection of the Laws: We therefore, upon this serious and important Occasion, respectfully approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest and most solemn Assurances, that we will, in our respective Stations, exert every Means in our Power to strengthen the Hands of your Majesty's Government.

May your Majesty, whose Arms have heretofore been crowned with Victory, still, by the Blessing of the Almighty, triumph over all your Enemies: May our Fellow-Subjects in America soon return to a proper Sense of their Duty: May your Majesty long reign over a free, grateful, and united People; and may the British Dominions be transmitted to your Majesty's latest Posterity entire and undivided.

At Perth this 3d Day of November, 1775. Signed in the Presence and by the Appointment of the Meeting,
KINNOULL, Preses.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Spencer, One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford in the County of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, should think ourselves failing in that Duty which we owe to your Majesty, if at a Time, when the greatest Part of your British Dominions has declared their Loyalty to your Sacred Person, we should remain in Silence, without giving your Majesty the same Assurances of our Affection towards You, the same Promises of supporting your just Rights, and the same Expressions of that Indignation which we feel at the unnatural and rebellious Spirit which now pervades the Continent of America.

We have observed with the most sincere and heart-felt Pleasure, that your Majesty has not been tempted to endanger the Constitution of Great Britain, by accepting the alluring Offers of an unconstitutional Increase of your Prerogative.

We have observed too with the same Satisfaction, that your Majesty has made every possible Effort to put a Stop to the Effusion of Blood, and to bring back your American Subjects to their former Obedience, without tainting the Dignity of your Crown or hurting the Safety of your Realm. That Part of your Majesty's gracious Speech, by which we are given to understand that your Commissions, sent to America, contain in them a Power of granting special or general Pardons, and of receiving the Submission of whole Provinces, confirms our Ideas of your Majesty's earnest Desire of a Reconciliation with your deluded Colonies.

We thought that America had Reason to complain of the unconditional, unlimited Right of Taxation claimed by the Parliament of Great Britain, but as the Grievance was, in our Apprehension, redressed by a Measure taken in the last Session of Parliament, and as America has contemptuously rejected that Redress absolutely, even without making it a Ground of Treaty, we cannot but think that she entertains Views totally inconsistent with the Subordination which she, by every Principle of Right and sound Policy, owes to the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain.

Confiding in your Majesty's good Intentions, in the firm Resolution of your Ministers, in the steady Support of your two Houses of Parliament, in the Loyalty of your faithful Subjects, and in that high Spirit of this Nation, which in a just Cause has always enabled her to surmount the greatest Difficulties, we offer to your Majesty our most hearty Assurances of supporting the Rights of your Crown, and of maintaining the Legislative Authority of your Parliament in every Part of your extended Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council-Chamber in the City of Oxford, the Sixth Day of November, in the Sixteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th Day of November, 1775,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.
Whereas there was this Day read at the Board, a Report from a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 4th of this Instant, upon considering a Representation from the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, proposing, That all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa for Trade, should be permitted to take on Board and Export such Quantities of Gunpowder, and military Stores, as shall be necessary for their respective Voyages; His Majesty, taking the said Report into Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa, for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade for Slaves, Ivory, and Gold, be permitted to take on Board, as an allotted Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of trading Guns, Pistols, Cutlasses, Flint, and Lead Balls, Bars and Shot, as the Exporters shall think necessary, provided that sufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs of the Port in which they are fitted out, and before they proceed upon their respective Voyages, in Treble the Value of the Articles so exported, that the same shall be expended in Trade upon the Coast of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled, until Proof of such Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Master of the Ship or Vessel, in like Manner as is practised with regard to Spain and East India Goods, used in carrying on that Trade: and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that all Ships and Vessels trading to the said Coast, be allowed to take on Board for their Defence, whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels and Small Arms shall be judged proper by the respective Masters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence.

fence than twelve Carriage-Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Masket or Blunderbuss, one Pair of Pistols, and one Cutlass, for every Person of which the Ship's Company shall consist, and Ammunition in Proportion; provided that sufficient Security be in the like Manner first given to the said Principal Officers of the Customs at the Ports where the Ships shall be fitted out, in Treble the Value thereof, to bring back the Carriage-Guns, Swivels, and Small Arms, so taken on Board for the Defence of the Ships, when the Voyage is completed; and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Blair.

Bonn, November 20. The Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle is again broken out, and has spread itself from Aix la Chapelle to Mentz: Great Numbers of Cows are already dead.

Admiralty-Office, October 28, 1775.

Whereas several of the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are unemployed, have not sent to this Office the Places of their Residence; It is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that all such Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, as come within the above Description, do forthwith transmit to this Office the Place of their respective Residence; and that they do, for the Future, continue to do the like whenever they remove to any other Place.

Ph. Stephens.
